Investing in Australia's Future

Established in 1978 as a major corporate initiative of the La Trobe Financial Services Group, the La Trobe Foundation recognises the demands placed on our borrowing and investing clients. With this in mind, we offer educational scholarships to client's children in Years 7-12 so they may achieve educational excellence at various scholastic levels.

La Trobe Financial is proud of the assistance it has provided over the years and has earned a solid reputation for being trustworthy, reliable, and caring. We continue to be actively involved in various community groups through sponsorships and various other initiatives that support young rising Australian talent.
